 - Acceptance to the KBA is determined by the membership committee.
 - The membership committee chairman will notify you about your membership status.
 - Payment of $60 is due.

Competitive Business Policy: The KBA consists of only one representative from each industry group, as voted for admission by the majority of the group. In the event of a competitive conflict with another potential new member, the KBA will follow the below process for evaluating and voting on membership:

Application Process for Competing Businesses:

1. Competing businesses are allowed to begin application process at any time, regardless of other competitive applicants.
2. Application priority will be given to the first applicant to complete the full application process which includes:
 - a. Completed Application
 - b. Check Submission
 - c. Documented completion of two KBA meeting visits.
3. If two applicants complete the application process on the same date, both applications will be submitted to the KBA membership for discussion and vote.
4. Applicant receiving the most votes by the membership committee will be admitted to the group.
